Lesson 15: Determiners

Part A: Circle the 9 words that are determiners. 10 points

these	my	many	there	all
almost	those	and	never	a
its	me	their	that	than

We can organize the determiners in part A like this.

Articles (Are we familiar?)	Demonstrable pronouns (which one)	Possessives (whose?)	Quantifiers (About how many?)
a	these those that	my its their	many all

Part B: Word order in the subject box. The correct order of words in the subject box is usually

- a. # * Ds Dt
- b. Dt # Ds * Example: The five intelligent students
- c. Dt Ds # *

Part C These sentences all have one or more problems with determiners. Find the problems and correct them.

1. It was a very busy and sad day.
2. That was a great experience.
3. I went to the kitchen and cooked ~~some~~ a big meal.

Part D: Match the determiners with the noun. First, write uncountable, plural, singular or proper over each noun. Then write all of the determiners that can go with these nouns on the line.

∅	a	a lot of	those	her	each	some
---	---	----------	-------	-----	------	------

Example:     ∅, a lot of, her, some olive oil

- 1 ∅, a lot of, her, each, some uncountable
cheese
- 2 ∅, a lot of, her, each, some uncountable
money
- 3 ∅, a lot of, her, some plural
people
- 4 a, her, each singular
restaurant
- 5 ∅ proper
Caesar Cardini
- 6 ∅, a lot of, those, her, some plural
restaurants

Remember these facts

- Every singular noun needs a determiner.
- POSSESSIVES can go with any noun.
- Proper names (Caesar Cardini) do not need a determiner.
- Some determiners go with singular nouns, like pen.
- Some determiners go with uncountable nouns, like rice.
- Some determiners go with plural nouns, like pens.
