

QUIZ

Lesson 16: Describers and Numbers

Part A True or False?

- T Some DESCRIBERS are also called adjectives.
- T NUMBERS come before DESCRIBERS in the subject box.
- F The MAIN SUBJECT always comes first in the subject box.
- F Words like first, second, and third are numbers.

Part B Word order.

Circle the letter of the correct sentence.

- 1 a. My brothers older rich are coming to New York.
 b. My rich older brothers are coming to New York.
- 2 a. The beautiful dress color blue is my favorite.
 b. The beautiful blue dress is my favorite.
- 3 a. The pencils purple two are Nana's.
 b. The two pencils purple are Nana's
- 4 a. The two third floor apartments are for rent.
 b. The two apartments of floor third are for rent.

Part C Put a box around the subject and mark all X-Words and verbs. Then box the subject, mark the main subject, numbers, and describers.

Dt # Ds Ds * X Dt *

Their three color television sets are LGs.

Dt Ds # * X Ds

The first three years are difficult. (first is describing "three years")

Dt # * VxO pr Dt *

Over 8,000,000 people live < in | the city >.

Dt # * VxO pr Dt Ds *

His favorite cousins live < in | the Dominican Republic.

Dt Ds * X mw Ds Ds

Her first job wasn't very interesting.

Dt Ds Ds Ds = Ds * VxD pr Dt Ds *
The sweet little black and white dog sat < beside | the little girl.>

Dt Ds * = # Ds * VxD pr Dt *
A mathematics book and two English books fell < on | the floor >.

Part D Make a good sentence by putting these words in the right order in their noun boxes.

thousands / every spring / the beautiful / college students / sandy beaches

*

The beautiful sandy beaches of Cancun are visited by thousands of college students every spring.

when?