Extra note: English doesn't like Doubles

Do you remember the saying "English doesn't like doubles"?

In this exercise, we leave out words in the second sentence if they repeat words in the first sentence. Here's an example.

Omit the words that are doubles to get the most natural sounding sentence.

FANBOYS	X-Word	Subject	Verb	what	where do	you	want	to go	to the party
or	do	you	want	to stay	home

So all of these sentences are correct, but the last is the most natural sounding.

Do you want to go to the party? Do you want to stay home?

Do you want to go to the party, or do you want to stay home?

Do you want to go to the party or to stay home?

Do you want to go to the party or stay home?
