QUIZ*Lesson 25: Completer Clauses

Part A: What do these clauses do? Circle the answer(s) that apply.

1 A shifter clause

- a) completes the idea of the trunk
- b) gives more information about one word in the trunk
- c) gives information about time, reason, condition, or the opposite of expectation

2 A describer clause

- a) completes the idea of the trunk
- b) gives more information about one word in the trunk
- c) gives information about time, reason, condition, or the opposite of expectation

3 A completer clause

- a) completes the idea of the trunk
- b) gives more information about one word in the trunk
- c) gives information about time, reason, condition, or the opposite of expectation
- d) usually begins with the word "that"
- e) usually comes after verbs of reporting or thinking (think, say, know)
- f) all of the above

Part B: Box the main subject and mark the verb of the TRUNK. Underline the completer clauses and write CW over the clause word.

Example:

<sup>S</sup> John <sup>VxS</sup> believes <sup>cw</sup> that aliens in a UFO stole his brain last night.

1. I think that John should get more sleep.
2. She said that she was going home.
3. I hope that you feel better soon.
4. Our teacher said that we are his best group of students ever!
5. Annie told me that you want to see me.

Part C: Underline the completer clause and indicate where the CW (that) should be.

1. I guess I'll go home now.
2. He says he'll never understand English.
3. I believe all people should have interesting work.
4. Suzy thinks she'll get an A in this class.
5. Our teacher told us we work too hard and need to relax more.

Part D: "That" isn't the only completer clause word. Fill in the blanks with the completer word that fits the meaning best.
